Resurrection of our Lord, God and Savior Jesus Christ
Воскресіння з Мертвих Господа Бога і Спаса Нашого Ісуса Христа

Кондак— Голос 8

Хоч і до гробу зійшов еси, Безсмертний, проте пекельну переміг Ти силу, і воскрес еси, як переможець Христе Боже, що жінкам - мироносицям сказав; “Радуйтеся” і спокій дарував Твоїм Апостолам, а впавшим подав воскресінню

Kondak — Tone 8

You did descend into the tomb, O Immortal One and destroyed the power of Hades. You did arise as victor, O Christ God, proclaiming to the Myrr-Bearing Women “Rejoice”! You granted peace to Your Apostles and bestowed resurrection upon the fallen.

Rt. Reverend Mitred Archpriest Taras Makowsky

On behalf of your parish council, I would like to welcome all our family and friends who join us in church and online each week as we celebrate our Lenten services in preparation for Holy Pascha. May the Good Lord send down His Blessings to you all.

Your parish council has been working diligently this past month, putting things in order for the daily operation of our parish and moving forward with new initiatives. The next time you are in the church hall you will notice new chairs and tables in the lower level and also new round tables in the upper level. We have made the decision to discontinue bingos at our hall due to a definite decline in interest from the public to attend bingo, and a lack of staff to run the bingo. Although this represents a reduction in income for our church, we are working hard to increase the number of rentals at our hall that will cover that shortfall. We have reviewed and implemented some changes to our rental agreement, and we will continue to pursue upgrades to our facilities.

It is our sincere hope that you will be able to join us for the remainder of the Lenten services and for Pascha. It would be wonderful to celebrate together with our church family. You will find a schedule of our April services included in this newsletter.

May the Good Lord bless you and your family as we prepare for The Resurrection of Our Lord, God and Saviour Jesus Christ - Holy Pascha - 'The Feast of Feasts'.

Христос Воскрес! Смачної Паски!

Palm Sunday Квітна Неділя

Неділю перед Велкоднем звемо Вербною. У цей день жінки нарізали вербових паличків, несли їх до Церкви, щоб святити. Галузки ці тримали як “помічні од недуг і грому”, ними можна було “Викликати у посуху дощ”. Для цієї мети брали лише червону вербу – шановане в Україні дерево, оскільки воно найпершим розпукується і, отже, оповіщає про весну. Є звичай “бити” кожного стрічного свяченого в Церкві лозою. Є приказка “Верба б’є, не я б’ю, від нині за тиждень Великдень”. Свячену лозу шанують, закладають у хаті за святі ікони.

On the Feast of the Entrance of Our Lord into Jerusalem, or Palm Sunday, we recall how the people waved palm branches to welcome Our Savior. If palms are not available, then we use what God has provided by blessing pussy willows, the first signs of Spring, or new life for us. The blessed pussy willow branches are taken home and place around our icons in the kitchen and dining room.

EASTER Victory of life over death

By taking on Christianity, our nation was able to understand another symbolic step of the celebration of: the Resurrection of Christ we see the victory of life over sin and death.

According to the priests of Alexander and Jaroslav Vasylashky, "Easter – is a celebration of joy for everyone: for the children and adults, and for the living and the dead.: for if Christ is risen, then He conquered death and the devil, and we now believe that all people will be resurrected by the power of His Resurrection. And the living and the dead together appear before the Lord God. Resurrected Christ strengthens us in the belief that human life is not cut short, it is full of deep meaning and significance. The Resurrection of Christ - the source of immense joy, which involves all the people."

On Easter Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom read in the Church, which urges all to enjoy: "Rich and poor, rejoice together. discreet and lazy, honor the day. those who are fasting and not fasting, be glad today ... No one shall not mourn over their sins, for forgiveness shines from the tomb. Do not fear death, because His death sets us free ... " John Chrysostom reminds us that now death is not destruction, but only a temporary condition, and solemnly proclaims the eternal Christ's victory over death: "O death, where is thy sting? Hell, where is thy sting? . Christ is risen, and thou art overthrown. Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen. Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice. Christ is risen, and life reigns. Christ is risen, and not one dead remains in the grave .For Christ, being risen from the dead, is become the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep. To Him be glory and dominion unto ages of ages.

ПЕРЕМОГА ЖИТТЯ НАД СМЕРТЮ

Прийнявши християнство, наш народ отримав змогу досягти ще один символічний щабель весняного свята: у Воскресінні Христовому ми бачимо перемогу життя над гріхом і смертю. Як зазначають священники Олександр та Ярослав Василяшки, "Пасха - це свято радості для всіх: і для дітей, і для дорослих, і для живих, і для мертвих. Бо коли Христос воскрес, то цим Він переміг смерть та диявола, і ми тепер впевнені, що всі люди силою Його воскресіння воскреснуть. І живі, й мертві разом з'являться перед Господом Богом. Воскресіння Христове утверджує нас у вірі, що життя людське не обривається, як нитка, що воно сповнене глибокого змісту і значення. У Воскресінні Христовому - джерело неосяжної радості, до якої причетні всі люди."

На Великодній службі Божій у церкві читається слово Іоана Златоуста, який закликає радіти усіх: "Багаті і вбогі, радійте один з одним. Стримані і ліниві, вшануйте день. Ті, хто постить і не постить, веселіться сьогодні... Ніхто нехай не плаче над гріхами своїми, бо відпущення від гробу засяяло. Нехай ніхто не боїться смерті, бо нас визволила Спасова смерть..." Іоан Златоуст нагадує, що тепер смерть не є знищенням, а тільки тимчасовим станом, і урочисто виголошує вічну Христову перемогу над смертю: "Смерте, де твоє жало? Пекло, де твоя перемога? Воскрес Христос і ти впало додолу. Воскрес Христос і впали демони. Воскрес Христос і радіють ангели. Воскрес Христос і життя живе. Воскрес Христос і немає мертвих у гробі. Христос повстав із мертвих і став початком для спочилих. Йому слава і держава на віки вічні. Амінь".

Do I Really Need To Go To Church?

As time goes on, more people are beginning to question the idea of attending services in a physical church. “Churchless Christianity” asserts that we do not need the Church, because it is Christ alone who saves us. In other words, all you need is Jesus (and your Bible). However, we do need the Church. And we need to participate in Her divine services as much as we possibly can.

Reject The Church, Deny The New Testament

Very few Christians would argue against the assertion that Christ is the One who saves. For He is the eternal Son of God who has assumed human flesh and has done so “for us men and for our salvation” (Nicene Creed). Thus, Saint Paul writes, “For there is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus” (1Tim 2:5). But because this Mediator established the Church, which is His body, we who are joined to Him are joined to His Church as well. If we love Christ, who is Head of the Church, yet at the same time reject His body, then we deny New Testament teaching.

Establishment Of The Church In The New Testament

The first use of the word “church” (Gr. ecclesia) in the New Testament comes in the Gospel of Matthew. Our Lord gives His approval of Peter’s confession of faith and promises, “I will build My church” (Mt 16:18). Jesus Christ builds, and we cooperate with Him.

The Book of Acts amplifies what Jesus meant in Matthew 16. When Peter’s sermon on the Day of Pentecost concludes, those present ask for guidance toward salvation: “What shall we do?” (Acts 2:37). Following Peter’s word, they are baptized and join with the other believers, three thousand of them (Acts 2:38, 41).

Joined to Christ and His Church, these baptized believers begin living as the body of Christ. We find them looking after each other, using their personal resources for one another’s care, and continuing together in prayer and in the Eucharist (Acts 2:42–47). From this point on “the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved” (Acts 2:47), and throughout Acts, we see the Church growing as the Gospel of Christ spreads.

What It Means To Be Members Of Christ

Paul’s instructions in his letters to the parishes throughout the eastern Mediterranean clearly show what it means to be the Church and to be in the Church. Nowhere in the New Testament is Paul’s teaching on this topic more fully disclosed than in Ephesians 4. He explains that the Church is:

One, “endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace” (4:3). There is one Church, one God, one doctrine, one baptism.

People, men and women energized by the grace of the Holy Spirit (4:7). We do not all have the same gifts, but together we are equipped to do God’s will.

The Head is Christ, “from whom the whole body [is] joined and knit together” (4:16).

“The new man” (4:24), the new creation, made to be righteous and holy. We are no longer alienated from God (4:18); we are being renewed together (4:23), “members of one another” (4:25).

Conclusion

The Church, then, is that real physical place established by Christ where we each may become what we are created to be, maturing and being perfected, while the Church receives what it needs from each of us, so that it too is being perfected. The Church as the body of Christ carries us beyond our petty and worldly personal concerns. She stretches our vision to the eternal and heavenly, as we ascend together to worship the One True God.
