The Meeting of our Lord, God and Saviour Jesus Christ
Стрітєння Господа Бога і Спаса Нашого Ісусу Христа

Кондак Голос 1

Утробу дівочу освятив еси Різдом Твоїм і руки Симеонові благословив, як годилось, Ти випередив, і нині спас еси нас, Христе Боже. Але мир даруй народові Твоєму у боротьбі і укріпи православних християн, що їх возлюбив еси, Єдиний Чоловіколюбче.

Kondak, Tone 1

By Your birth You have sanctified the Virgin's womb and blessed the hands of Simeon as was meet, O Christ our God. You have come on this day and saved us. Give peace to your Commonwealth in time of war and strengthen the Orthodox people whom you have loved, O only Lover of mankind.

 Christ is Baptised in River Jordan!

Fr Taras is visiting the homes of the faithful with Blessed Water from the Feast of Theophany. We invite the Priest into our homes, to bless the surroundings where we live, to fill our home with the fullness of God, to sanctify our lives.

Ваш парох відвідує всіх членів при громаді у цей час, щоб помолитися з ними і освячувати ваших домів із святою водою. Разом ми просимо помилувати дім, позбавити його від усякого зла і наповнити його всякими благословенням.

Thank You to all who have donated so generously in the past year.

The Saints ' In proportion as the body grows fat, so does the soul wither away.' "What does the daily invocation of the saints signify — of different ones each day, during the whole year, and during our whole life? It signifies that God's saints — as our brethren, but perfect — live, and are near us, ever ready to help us, by the grace of God. We live together with them in the house of our Heavenly Father, only in different parts of it. We live in the earthly, they in the heavenly half; but we can converse with them, and they with us. God's saints are near to the believing heart and are ready in a moment to help those who call upon them with faith and love."

Слава Ісусу Христу! Слава на Віки!
Glory to Jesus Christ! Glory Forever!

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I hope this newsletter finds you well, refreshed and renewed from joyous Christmas and New Year celebrations. As the winter rolls on and the days slowly get longer, it is time to renew our efforts to help the church in all its projects and activities.

Our fundraising efforts continue for the newly completed Hall Renovation Project. The donations to the Project are growing and we thank you very much for them. We look forward to your further support as we raise the funds to complete the repayment of the loans.

A Varenyky Take-Out supper will be held again at the end of February, and a grand church garage sale will be held later in the spring to further assist with our finances.

Our Cathedral AGM will be held on Sunday, February 2 immediately following the Divine Liturgy. We will discuss the state of our church, its finances and will hold elections for new members of the church council for the upcoming year. After the AGM, there will be an opportunity to ask questions of the council about our church life and activities. We hope all of our members will join us at the AGM. We look forward to seeing you soon.

Шановні парафіяни та друзі,

Я сподіваюся, що цей інформаційний бюлетень знайшов вас здоровими, оновленими та відновленими після радісного святкування Різдва та Нового року. Оскільки зима наближається, а дні повільно стають довшими, настав час відновити наші зусилля, щоб допомогти церкві в усіх її проектах і діяльності.

Ми продовжуємо роботу зі збору коштів для нещодавно завершеного проекту реконструкції залу. Пожертви на проект зростають, і ми дуже вдячні за це. Ми сподіваємося на вашу подальшу підтримку, оскільки ми збираємо кошти для завершення погашення позик.

Вечеря варениками на винос буде знову проведена наприкінці лютого, а пізніше весни відбудеться великий церковний гаражний розпродаж, щоб додатково допомогти нашим фінансам.

Річні збори нашого Собору відбудуться у неділю 2 лютого одразу після Божественної Літургії. Ми обговоримо стан нашої церкви, її фінанси та проведемо вибори нового складу церковної ради на наступний рік. Після Загальних зборів буде можливість поставити питання ради про наше церковне життя та діяльність. Ми сподіваємося, що всі наші члени приєднаються до нас на загальних зборах. Ми з нетерпінням чекаємо на вас найближчим часом.

With Christian love, Larry Klopoushak, Parish Council President

The Grace of God. . . .

In the same way the grace of God is preserved by the practice of the commandments, and the observance of these commandments is laid down like foundations through the gift of God. The grace of the Spirit cannot remain with us without the practice of the commandments, but the practice of the commandments, is of no help or advantage to us without the grace of God.

Blessing of Storm Candles

At the Liturgy we bless the candles, which we take home signifying the Light of Christ. The candles are lit a reminder that we should be prepared to accept the Light of Christ into our hearts.

The candles which are blessed are referred to as надгromні свічки – the thunder or storm candles which we keep near our icon corner and when a storm is brewing, we light them and say a prayer that the storm will “blow (pass) over “ our home and our fields.

The candles usually made of beeswax are also significant. Bees, honey & bee keepers are important in the Ukrainian culture & have special prayers attached to them, along with Saints (John the Baptist, Zosimos Salvtsky). Bees are known in Liturgical prayers as the voiceless ones.

Now beeswax candles have a beautiful golden yellow color to them, they are not processed so they have a natural honey fragrance. These candles are almost smokeless, so they do not damage the icons with their smoke film such as paraffin wax does, and they burn longer

Did you know?

The three doors.

Every Orthodox church will have an iconostasis before its altar. “Iconostasis” means “icon-stand”, and it can be as simple as a large image of Christ on the right and a corresponding image of the Virgin and Child on the left. In a more established church, the iconostasis may be a literal wall, adorned with icons. Some versions shield the altar from view, except when the central doors stand open. The basic set-up of two large icons creates, if you use your imagination, three doors. The central one, in front of the altar itself, is called the “Holy Doors” or “Royal Doors,” because there the King of Glory comes out to the congregation in the Eucharist. Only the priest and deacons, who bear the Eucharist, use the Holy Doors. The openings on the other sides of the icons, if there is a complete iconostasis, have doors with icons of angels; they are termed the “Deacon’s Doors.” Altar boys and others with business behind the altar use these, although no one is to go through any of the doors without an appropriate reason. Altar service—priests, deacons, altar boys—is restricted to males. Females are invited to participate in every other area of church life. Their contribution has been honored equally with men’s since the days of the martyrs; you can’t look at an Orthodox altar without seeing Mary and other holy women. In most Orthodox churches, women do everything else men do: lead congregational singing, paint icons, teach classes, read the epistle, and serve on the parish council.

Where do we fit in?

Flipping through the Yellow Pages in a large city you might see a multiplicity of Orthodox churches: Ukrainian, Greek, Romanian, Carpatho-Russian, Antiochian, Serbian, and on and on. Is Orthodoxy really so tribal? Do these divisions represent theological squabbles and schisms? Not at all. All these Orthodox churches are one church. The ethnic designation refers to what is called the parish’s “jurisdiction” and identifies which bishops hold authority there. There are about 6 million

Orthodox in North America and 250 million in the world, making Orthodoxy the second-largest Christian communion. The astonishing thing about this ethnic multiplicity is its theological and moral unity. Orthodox throughout the world hold unanimously to the fundamental Christian doctrines taught by the Apostles and handed down by their successors, the bishops, throughout the centuries. One could attribute this unity to historical accident. We would attribute it to the Holy Spirit. [...] Orthodoxy seems startlingly different at first, but as the weeks go by it gets to be less so. It will begin to feel more and more like home, and will gradually draw you into your true home, the Kingdom of God. *An edited version of the above is available as a brochure from Conciliar Press Copyright © 1989-2009, Frederica Mathewes-Green. ## Presentation of the Lord - Blessing of Candles

The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord is a great one, one of the twelve greatest feasts of the church year. . On that day, the event of the presentation of our Lord Jesus Christ by the Most Holy Theotokos to the temple, after the days of purification were over (Luke 2:22-39), is solemnly commemorated. Although the Virgin Mary did not need ritual purification, she nevertheless fulfilled what was written in the Law on the fortieth day. At the door of the temple, she was met by the pious elder Simeon, who took the Infant Christ in his arms, reciting the main song of his life - "Now you are dismissing your servant, Master, according to your word, in peace, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared before the face of all people, a light for revelation to the nations, and the glory of your people Israel." Joseph and Mary, listening to such strange words, became more and more convinced that the mystery of the Incarnation was already being revealed to humanity in its full measure.

In the prayer for the consecration of candles on the Meeting, the priest asks for things that are precisely the opposite of vanity: "Grant, Merciful One, that as this light, lit by visible fire, drives away the darkness of the night, so that our hearts, enlightened by invisible fire, by the brightness of the Holy Spirit, may bypass the blindness of all kinds of sins, so that we may be able to see with the purified eye of the soul what is pleasing to You and beneficial for our salvation. And that it may be fitting for us to overcome the dark dangers of this world and attain the unceasing light" Author: Archpriest Yevgen Zapletniuk

Стрітєння благословляють свічки

У нашій церковній традиції на Стрітєння благословляють свічки. А звідки взявся такий цікавий звичай? Коли саме з'явився Чин освячення свічок? У яких Церквах дотримуються звичаю освячення свічок?

Свято Стрітєння Господнього – велике, одне за дванадцяти найбільших свят церковного року

Того дня урочисто згадується подія принесення Господа нашого Ісуса Христа Пресвятою Богородицею до храму, після закінчення днів очищення (Лк.2:22-39). Хоча Діва Марія не мала потреби в ритуальному очищенні, все ж, вона на сороковий день виконала написане в Законі. Біля дверей храму її зустрів преведний старець Симеон, який прийняв на руки Немовлятка-Христа виголошуючи головну пісню свого життя – "Нині відпускаєш раба Твого, Владико, за словом Твоїм з миром, бо побачили очі мої спасіння Твоє, що Ти приготував перед лицем всіх людей, світло на одкровення народам, і славу людей Твоїх, Ізраїля". Йосиф та Марія слухаючи такі дивні слова все більше переконувалися, що таємниця Боговтілення вже відкривається людству в повній мірію

У молитві освячення свічок на Стрітєння священник просить речей, які саме протилежні марновістуву: "Дай, Милостивий, щоб як це світло, вогнем видимим запалене, проганяє нічну пітьму, так щоб серця наші, вогнем невидимим, світлістю Духа Святого просвічені, оминули сліпоту всіляких гріхів, щоб змогли ми очищеним оком душі бачити те, що Тобі благодне і для нашого спасіння благопотрібне. І щоб сподобитися нам перемогти темні небезпеки світу цього і досягнути світла безперестанного" Автор: прот. Євген Заплетнюк
