Protection of the Theotokos October 14 жовтня Покрова Пресвятої Богородиці

Tropar, Tone 4

Today, we Orthodox people joyfully celebrate, enlightened by Your coming among us O Mother of God, and gazing upon Your most-pure image, we say with compunction:

“Shelter us with Your most pure Protection and deliver us from all evil, praying to Your Son, Christ our God, to save our souls.”

Тропар, голос 4

Сьогодні, ми, православні люди, радісно святкуємо, осяяні Твоїм, Богоматі, пришустям, і, споглядаючи на Твій пречистий образ, покірно мовимо:

“Покрий нас чесним Твоїм покровом і визволи нас від усякого зла, молячи Сина Твого, Христа Бога нашого, спасти душі наші”.

I greet you all on behalf of your Parish Council with the hope that this letter finds you well. As we transition from summer to fall, we are excited about all the opportunities for you in our parish.

We have started all of our usual activities this month with the new Church calendar year and our Church services have returned to the 10:00 am start time, as has been our usual practice.

During September several things have occurred:

1. General maintenance and upkeep has been continuing in all our facilities
2. Booking requests are increasing for the hall
3. Our usual long term hall renters have fully begun their fall rehearsal schedules

The U of S Ballroom Dancers are in our upper hall each Wednesday evening and also once a month on Saturdays for their 'Dance Party'. Leleka Dancers are in the upper hall Sunday afternoon, and Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings for rehearsals. Dibrova Choir rehearses on Wednesday afternoon in the lower auditorium and Lastiwka Choir rehearses on Sunday evenings in the upper auditorium. Additionally, our Varenyky and Cabbage roll bees are beginning again. Check the Bulletin for more details. We have a busy place!

UWAC is celebrating their 100th Anniversary with a Banquet & Program in the upper auditorium on Saturday, September 30 and His Eminence, Metropolitan Ilarion will be attending and will also serve the Hierarchical Divine Liturgy on Sunday, October 1 at 10 am. Congratulations to our UWAC Olha Kobylanska Branch for 100 years of dedicated work in our church and across the country. Bravo!

Everybody is encouraged to get involved with our Parish activities. The more involvement we have from you, the more our fellowship as a Parish grows, which is a goal well worth pursuing, as we grow strong in faith and fellowship.

With Christian love,

St. John of Kronstadt

Where we came from – 100 years of UWAC - Olha Kobylianska Branch

A century of learning! A century of leadership and mentorship! A century of service! A century of the promotion and practice of Ukrainian traditions and arts!

The year 1923 was truly a milestone year in Saskatoon with the formation of a group of women into an organization that has endured with purpose for a hundred years.

The young women students residing at St. Petro Mohyla Institute in 1923 were organized into a cultural and educational group, the Mohylianky, who met daily for an hour under the direction of their dean of women, Savella Stechishin. After their day of studies at high school, normal school, or university, these young women used that hour to work on skills of oratory, Ukrainian language, Ukrainian embroidery, pysanky writing, and learning about current events in Canada and in Ukraine, particularly women's activism. Savella had a drive to establish a women's organization that would help the members achieve confidence and pride, enabling them to become good Canadian citizens, proud of their Ukrainian heritage, and strong mothers who would set a fine example for their children.

On September 23, 1923, Savella Stechishin and Tatiana Kroitor formally organized the Olha Kobylianska Association in Saskatoon, a non-denomination organization of 30 women, comprised mostly of Mohylianky and some members of the community. With Savella as the first president and Tatiana the first secretary, the organization focused upon promoting self-confidence and self-education through reading. Kharytia Kononenko, an émigré from Ukraine and an active activist in the women's movement in eastern Europe, was the president of this fledgling Olha Kobylianska Association for part of 1925 and brought knowledge about the women's movement in Ukraine and Europe. Thus, this new organization for Ukrainian-Canadian women was able to blend both worlds, valuing life in Canada while honouring Ukrainian traditions, and working to improve the lives of new immigrants from Ukraine and of people in Ukraine.

In 1926, the National Ukrainian Women's Association of Canada was officially founded in Saskatoon, and the Olha Kobylianska Women's Association became a UWAC branch.

Our Olha Kobylianska Branch of the Ukrainian Women's Association of Canada in Saskatoon strives to maintain these lofty ideals set out 100 years earlier. We stand on the backs of enlightened, positive, self-assured, encouraging women who pursued the goals of the organization as fervently as we do now. We are confident in our lives in Canada, but we continue to learn about and develop our Ukrainian traditions, to mentor our children in our Orthodox faith and traditions and Ukrainian language and arts, to support our Ukrainian Orthodox Cathedral, to support our Ukrainian Museum of Canada, to help Ukrainian immigrants in Saskatoon, and to support worthy causes in our community and in Ukraine. We have been blessed with a sisterhood of friendship, faith, and support, with a group of women who inspire and encourage us. We are grateful for the gift of 100 years!

Prayer to the Most Holy Theotokos

O undefiled, untainted, uncorrupted, most pure, chaste Virgin, Thou Bride of God and Sovereign Lady, who didst unite the Word of God to mankind through thy most glorious birth giving, and hast linked the apostate nature of our race with the heavenly; who art the only hope of the hopeless, and the helper of the struggling, the ever-ready protection of them that hasten unto thee, and the refuge of all Christians: Do not shrink with loathing from me a sinner, defiled, who with polluted thoughts, words, and deeds have made myself utterly unprofitable, and through slothfulness of mind have become a slave to the pleasures of life. But as the Mother of God who loveth mankind, show thy love for mankind and mercifully have compassion upon me a sinner and prodigal, and accept my supplication, which is offered to thee out of my defiled mouth; and making use of thy motherly boldness, entreat thy Son and our Master and Lord that He may be pleased to open for me the bowels of His lovingkindness and graciousness to mankind, and, disregarding my numberless offenses, will turn me back to repentance, and show me to be a tried worker of His precepts. And be thou ever present unto me as merciful, compassionate and well disposed; in the present life be thou a fervent intercessor and helper, repelling the assaults of adversaries and guiding me to salvation, and at the time of my departure taking care of my miserable soul, and driving far away from it the dark countenances of the evil demons; lastly, at the dreadful day of judgment delivering me from torment eternal and showing me to be an heir of the ineffable glory of thy Son and our God; all of which may I attain, O my Sovereign Lady, most holy Theotokos, in virtue of thine intercession and protection, through the grace and love to mankind of thine only begotten Son, our Lord and God and Savior, Jesus Christ, to Whom is due all glory, honor and worship, together with His Father, and His Most Holy and good and life creating Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Small Compline: The Supplicatory Prayer to the Most Holy Theotokos

Humility & Meekness

"The light of dawn comes before the sun, and meekness is the precursor of all humility. So let us listen to the order in which Christ our Light places these virtues. He says: 'Learn from Me, because I am meek and humble of heart' (Mt. 11:29). Therefore, before gazing at the sun of humility, we must let the light of meekness flow over us. If we do, we will then be able to look steadily at the sun? Meekness is a mind consistent amid honor or dishonor. Meekness prays quietly and sincerely for a neighbor however troublesome he may be. Meekness is a rock looking out over the sea of anger which breaks the waves which come crashing on it and stays entirely unmoved. Meekness is a bulwark of patience, the door, indeed the mother of love, and the foundation of discernment. For it is said: 'The Lord will teach His ways to the meek' (Ps. 24:9). And it is meekness that earns pardon for our sins, gives confidence to our prayers and makes a place for the Holy Spirit."
